

Laura Reed & Deep Pocket Audio Taping Policy

Laura Reed & Deep Pocket appreciate your interest in our music and your contribution to the band's community. Generally, audience taping is permitted at Laura Reed & Deep Pocket shows, subject to the following restrictions and requests:

- If you tape a show, you must send a copy of the show to the band at Laura Reed & Deep Pocket, LLC, 4610 Peachtree Industrial Blvd., Norcross, GA 30071.
- No shows may be used for bootlegging or sale. Non-commercial use only is permitted.
- When the band is performing at a festival or other event, or opening for another act, the festival, event, venue or main act may prohibit taping. Please check with the venue.
- All taping is audio only with microphones (unless a soundboard patch is approved in advance by the band's archivist, who can be reached at bookingshowsgmail.com).
- NO VIDEO TAPING OR PHOTOGRAPHY IS ALLOWED WITHOUT PRIOR PERMISSION FROM THE BAND.

The enjoyment of the audience in attendance at a concert always takes precedence over recording efforts. This means that at no time should tapers ever require other patrons to be quiet or otherwise interfere with their enjoyment of the show.

Regardless of format or source, all participants in audio recording exchange acknowledge and respect the copyrights and exclusive ownership of the music and performances by the performers, writers and publishers. All taping must be for personal use only, which may include trading (via tape, CD or digital file transfer). If the band chooses to offer for sale a particular Laura Reed & Deep Pocket performance, this "official" version will take precedence and audience-taped versions should no longer be traded. In no case may any officially-released Laura Reed & Deep Pocket recording (live or studio) be duplicated or otherwise sold, traded or offered.

Audience taping at Laura Reed & Deep Pocket shows is authorized for non-commercial purposes only. Unauthorized duplication, sale and/or distribution is strictly forbidden. All Laura Reed & Deep Pocket performances and recordings are the exclusive property of Laura Reed & Deep Pocket, LLC, and all rights are reserved. The rights to record Laura Reed & Deep Pocket performances set forth in this policy constitute an express, revocable license. We reserve the right to withdraw permission for recording, trading and/or non-commercial digital audio file transfers on a case-by-case basis or in general, as we deem necessary. No waiver of any copyright or trademark is intended. If you are aware of any person or website in violation of this policy, please let us know at bookingshowsgmail.com.